

ACADEMIC SKILLS TRAINING (ONLINE)

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Department of Defense (DoD) Voluntary Education (VolEd) Program, through the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES), offers online, self-paced, academic skills training courses to help improve a member's math and communication skills.

Online Academic Skills Course (OASC)

- provides fundamental math and verbal skills online training

College Placement Skills Training (CPST)

- offers college level math, English and writing skills online training

Both programs:

- 24/7, online, learning platforms
- Diagnostic assessments to identify strengths and weaknesses
- Customized learning paths for each student
- Engaging interactive lessons, practice sets, quizzes, and videos
- Informative content on educational pathways and career advancement

STUDENT BENEFITS:

- Strengthen areas of weakness and reinforce knowledge areas to:
 - ✓ Potentially improve ASVAB scores
 - Avoid remediation and earn placement into college level courses
- Easy access with one online registration for two programs
- Assess progress through instant feedback to ensure understanding
- 1 Self-paced, online programs offer flexibility
- Different course lengths fit any student's schedule
- Access the training 24/7 from any computer or personal device

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY:

All active duty, enlisted, officer and warrant officers, National Guard and Reserve members, in all military Services, including the U.S. Coast Guard, are eligible for this program. Family members and DoD civilian are eligible as well.
